THE HON. DR. M. V. KRISHNA RAO:—" (a) to (c) The reference is apparently to the provision in the S.S.L.C. Scheme allowing trained teachers and other members of the teaching profession including pandits with a service of at least 3 years and with the qualifications prescribed in the Madras Educational Rules to appear as private candidates for the S.S.L.C. Public Examination, dispensing with the production of school attendance and records.

This was a concession which was specially allowed to teachers and pandits up to the Examination of March 1953. The Rules were published in the Fort St. George Gazette.

This concession has been extended for another period of 3 years, i.e., till March 1956."
